Preface

This booklet provides an up-to-date list of Congressional committees and subcommittees, their functions, membership and telephone numbers.

● LISTING -- Democrats are listed on the left, Republicans on the right in order of their seniority on the committee. In the case of party policy and campaign committees, members are listed alphabetically by state.

● TELEPHONE NUMBERS -- Call Capitol 4-3121 and ask for the extension shown unless the list indicates otherwise. The parent committee handles calls for subcommittees without individual telephone extensions.

● KEY -- Full committee names are in boldface type, while subcommittee names are capitalized. *Asterisk indicates ex officio member. †Dagger indicates member waived his seniority to the next ranking member of his party because of his seniority on another committee.

CAPITOL TELEPHONE: Capitol 4-3121

For Newspapers - for Associations - for Labor Unions - for Corporations - for Libraries - for Government Officers - for anyone who needs to understand the big picture of Congress and politics -

Congressional Quarterly service consists of:

THE WEEKLY REPORT

THE WEEKLY REPORT, digesting in condensed magazine format Congressional activity for the current week — mailed every Friday night, second class postpaid. It includes the full texts of Presidential press conferences, statements, major messages and speeches.

THE QUARTERLY INDEX

THE QUARTERLY INDEX indexes alphabetically and logically the contents of all preceding issues of the Weekly Report for the year. It is the only current cumulative index to the full range of activities concerning Congress and politics and to the actual words of the President.

THE ALMANAC

THE ALMANAC, published early in January and covering the previous calendar year, is an 800-page volume which distills, reorganizes and cross-indexes the full year in Congress, politics and lobbying for permanent reference.

CQ QUERY SERVICE

CQ QUERY SERVICE is available to clients by telephone, telegraph, mail or through personal visits. Answers questions about matters of fact in CQ's field of coverage.
